

KNIT. CROCHET. RESIST.

Sunday Resistance Knit-In

A BIT OF HISTORY

In the 1940s, Norwegians defied Nazi occupation by knitting and wearing red, pointed hats with tassels. A handmade garment became an act of protest—an idea we carry forward today.

WHEN & WHERE

Sundays

2:00–4:00 pm

The Shops at Kenilworth
Common Area – Lower Level
Towson, MD

WHAT TO BRING

Red yarn, needles or crochet hook, and a Melt the Ice project if you have one. Beginners welcome. Supplies may be available to share.

Proceeds from patterns and finished items support CASA de Maryland and its work with immigrant communities.

SCAN TO SIGN UP ON MOBILIZE

Stay informed about weekly knit-ins and future actions.

Hosted by Allies for Democracy.

